

An Easter Scavenger hunt for you!!!

The EASTER BUNNY

First, go and find where the coffee pot sits,

See if the clue in the next note fits.

Read it aloud for your crew.

The note there will bring you to your next clue.

Above at table

Below at coffee pot

You are ready for a cup of joe,

Look for a mug to wake you up so...

Below in a mug

Grab a cup so to enjoy your Easter morn. Then, find a boat,

Go there to find your next note.

Below At the boat

Look next where there can be hot flames.

It is near where you play your games.

If you are cold, it can warm you up too,

There you can find the next clue.

At the fireplace

Next find where you sit to view a movie,
Now wait before you flee.
It's not where you keep your feet,
It's in the new bag's zipper where gaming and comfort meet.

Below at the bean bag in zipper
Look where one of your backpacks stays.

It's not where anyone plays.
Don't think too long or you will get caught.

There you will find a clue to help you in the next spot.

Below in lockers near a backpack
Where might one go to find an egg or a snack?

Keep thinking and you will get the knack.

Bring the whole crew
To find a note that is new.

Below in the fridge
Where might you go to get wet for real?
It's not a place for a meal.
Think about it, but it might still be frozen, it's true.

There in an egg will be your next clue.
Below near pool or cover in an Easter egg

Go somewhere where are things for pools.

There are also some garden tools.

Inside there are noodles you can't eat,

Find the next clue there if you move your feet.

Below in a pool noodle in shed

Go to where there is a fridge so small,

All can reach it, even if not tall.

Inside you will find the next clue,

Hopefully you will like it too.

Below in the bar fridge

Aha! You found me, this clever note,

Next, I will take you to where you might find a coat.

Inside one pocket, where are MANY, you will see

And search for where the next note might be.

Below in a jacket pocket in closet

You are wise, you are smart,

Look next where you did start.

Under that wood hides the next note,

Go find it quick & for the first one there, don't gloat!

Below taped under table

Are all of you here reading these words?

Be kind, and together you must say these words:

Easter Bunny, or where is our prize?

Please, don't hide it from our eyes!

Zoom to the game of skinny stacking blocks,

There is where the next note rocks!!

Below inside the Jenga game

Next you will be finding the prize,

There are no lies,

GOOD LUCK!!!

Hopefully it will not be stuck.

Look where your pictures are out.

Where your elf Baxter might lounge about.
