

An Easter Scavenger hunt for you!!!

The EASTER BUNNY presents it anew...

First, go and find a cereal box,

See if the clue will be something for you, my dear boys.

Read it aloud too for all to hear.

The note there will bring you to your next to-do.

Above at the table

Below in pantry by cereal box.

Great job! Always remember in life you have lots of love...

Now you are ready for the next move from the box above.

Look for note in a red cushion, not the sink ...

Aww look at you---I made you confused I think.

Below red couch cushion

Next you will need to find something is white and cold.

It's the kind you will surely use from young to old.

Go there and see if you can find a note to help you score.

It will give you the next clue in store.

Below in white fridge

Look next where there are heavy things to lift in the air.

It is near where you might run to nowhere.

There you will see things scattered about,

There might even be a heavy metal disk out.

Below under a barbell or weight

Next find where you keep outdoor toys you seek,

Go on out, a net on the wall is where to take a peek.

It's so obvious you know,

But for the next clue, it won't be down low.

Below in ball net in garage

Look next where you can sit at a bar,

No, not a metal bar but one that stretches far.

Don't think too long or you will get caught.

There you will find a clue to help you in the next spot.

Below at the bar

Where might one go to find glue?

Keep thinking so you aren't without the next clue.

It's a place where you have things to make,

It's not food or drink or any kind of cake.

Below in craft cupboard

Where in the house might you go to find somewhere to sit?

The clue is hidden near a place where all of the family can fit.

The note's where dishes aren't used, it's totally true.

There you lucky thing will be your next clue.

Below in china cabinet

Go somewhere where it can get hot.

There is fire there but a bonfire, it's not.

There you will not find a treat,

Find the next clue there quick! Do not accept defeat.

Below on fireplace mantel downstairs

Go next to where there is a door,

Don't hesitate because you need one clue more.

There once opened, you will find the next clue,

Hopefully, you will like what you find in the end too.

Below in between door and screen door

Aha! You found this clue, you are the cleverest one,
Next, I will send you where if opened you might see the sun.
Out it there is many a tree to see...

And definitely a clue to where the next note will likely be.

Below tucked into curtain hook at sliding door

You are wise, you are a smart dude,

Look next where you might find something for your mood--

Where all the white baskets reside, a place near the first note,

Go find it...BUT be sure if you're the first one there, don't gloat!

Under something on table

You might wonder what you should know to get your prize.

Please, you might say, don't hide it from our eyes!

Zoom to a place where you can watch people really not here,

That is where the next note will be my dear.

Below near tv in living room

Next you will be finding the end prizes,

Really, this time, there will be no disguises.

GOOD LUCK!!! GOOD LUCK!! GOOD LUCK!!

Here's hoping you get it before you get stuck.

Go find a room where walls are padded and find it fast.

It will surely be the stop you like best...Aha! Yes! The last!
